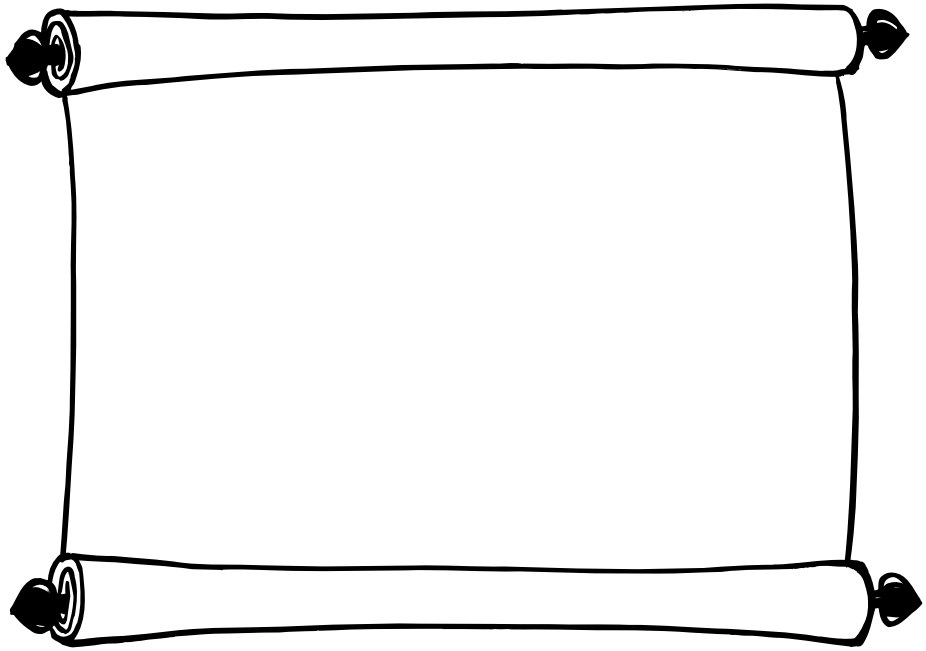
Stories to share

Martin Luther and his wife Kate told Bible stories in their home. Perhaps they had favorites. What are your favorite Bible stories?



Draw a picture of one of your favorite Bible stories here. Tell someone about it.

Thank you, God, for Bibles we can read and understand. Amen.

This week

Check out a new Bible storybook from your church or public library. Read it again and again.

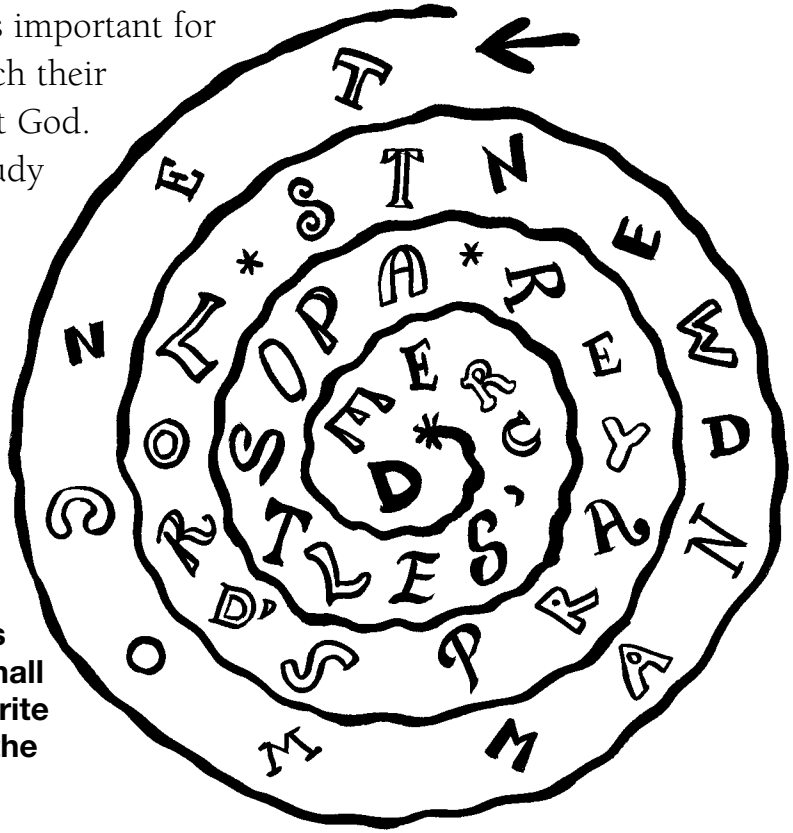
Today we hear about Martin Luther, a man who worked to reform—make changes—in the church. A lot was happening in the world at that time.

Draw a line connecting the person to what he did.

Martin's marvels

John 8:31-36

Martin Luther was a teacher who wanted everyone to know about the Bible. The printing press was just invented. Martin Luther used it to print copies of his translation of the Bible into the language the people spoke everyday. He thought it was important for parents to teach their children about God. He wrote a study book to help families learn together. Luther's Small Catechism is still used today.



Follow the arrows to discover parts of Luther's Small Catechism. Write the letters in the blanks below.
